

The Charter for Compassion

And

Compassionate Cornwall Initiative

WAC believes in The Golden Rule (always treat others as you would wish to be treated) and this is reflected in our values.

WAC feels that more compassion would benefit our local community and the wider world.

We are a partner of Charter for Compassion International and the Compassionate Cornwall Initiative – networks of like-minded professionals creating a culture of compassionate action locally and globally.

- Partnership is free and provides opportunities to
- Be part of a vast network of organisations steadfastly working for the Greater Good
- Raise the visibility of your work via communication channels that reach over 100,000 people around the world
- Be included on the Compassionate Cornwall Website as part of a network of compassionate organisations across the country
- Join a private Facebook group where the charter's varied and vibrant Partners can share events, resources and advice
- Access a robust library of resources with school curricula, volunteer toolkits, inspiring lectures and much more
- Show your support for the principles of Compassion, Unity and Positive Change whether or not you choose to take advantage of any of the above
